Royal Opera House Muscat is Oman's premier cultural venue, featuring stunning architecture and hosting a variety of performances, including opera and concerts. It symbolizes the country's dedication to arts and culture.

(visit if no rehearsal or performance)

Bait Zubair The museum is a fantastic place to learn about Omani culture and history.

Gallery Sarah offers an array of paintings and photographs by both up-and-coming and established local and international artists. The building itself is often praised for its traditional Omani design and aesthetic.

Sunset Dhow Cruise In the afternoon, we will drive to the marina to board a traditional Dhow for a 2h sunset cruise along Muscat's dramatic coastline in a traditional Dhow, passing by the small fishing towns of Al Haramel and Sidab, Old historical Muscat, Riyam Park, His Majesty's Palace, heading towards Sultan Qaboos Port all the way to the busy Muttrah Corniche side before returning to the marina Bander Rowdha. A golden sunset on the horizon, a peaceful atmosphere, a beautiful blue sea and a perfect way to end the day.

After our relaxed sailing our driver will leave us at our hotel or at the colorful Muttrah Souq

Mutrah Souq, located in the heart of Oman, is one of the country's oldest and most iconic marketplaces. This bustling market has played a vital role in Muscat's commercial activities for centuries. Traders at Mutrah Souq bartered spices, fabrics, and handmade products from distant countries like India, Persia, and Africa. The souq has played a very active part in the rich economic history of Oman as a commercial center at the junction of important maritime trade routes. The Souq is open till 10pm when you will see most locals shopping. If you look beyond the main passage, you can slink into a labyrinth of hole-in-the wall coffee shops, stands dripping with gold and boutiques where black-clad ladies thumb abayas (traditional robes) in fabrics of cerulean and hot pink.

Driving again through the rugged mountains surrounded by the desert with rust-coloured sand dunes and rocky terrain we will drive to Al Hamra village at the foot of the Hajar Mountains is one of the oldest in Oman, interesting for its well-preserved row of two- and three-story mud-brick houses built in the Yemeni style.

Misfab Al Abreyeen, is celebrated for its breathtaking scenery.

The terraced fields, verdant date palms, and historic mud-brick homes combine to form a picturesque setting straight out of a postcard. The sweeping views of the surrounding mountains are truly awe-inspiring, particularly if you explore the winding paths and terraced gardens. The village is known of its narrow passages, very old houses made of rocks and mud still lived in, palm and lemon farms everywhere and Falajs, streams.

Babla is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, renowned for its impressive mud fortress, the largest of its kind in Oman. Bahla, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is renowned for its impressive mud fortress, the largest of its kind in Oman.

Nestled within Oman's arid heartland, the age-old oasis town of Babla is steeped in captivating legends. Stories of fire-breathing hyenas devouring camels and tales of men transforming into donkeys contribute to its enduring reputation for enchantment and mystique.

Some superstitious Omanis still shun the isolated desert settlement because of its stories of "jinn," the spirits that have been part of Arab folklore since before the dawn of Islam.

Jabreen Castle, built in the 17th century, is one of Oman's most beautiful and impressive castles.

With its intricately decorated ceilings, wall paintings, and well-preserved interiors, it offers fascinating insights into Omani architecture and culture. The castle served as both a defensive stronghold and an educational center. Jabreen is one of the best-preserved and whimsical castles of them all.

We will arrive for overnight at Nizwa, once Oman's capital with its iconic Nizwa Fort, a true masterpiece of seventeenth-century architecture. Its circular main tower stands as a testament to the innovation of its time

Jeddah, which means grandmother, is a name that owes the city to the belief that Eve would be buried there. Jeddah is the commercial heart of Saudi Arabia and traditionally the port where pilgrims from all over the Islamic world arrive on their way to Mecca and Medina.

A visit to this urban vibrant city offers the chance to witness a rich cultural heritage recognized by UNESCO, from the historical district to the intricate designs of balconies and ancient sidewalks that have inspired artists, writers, and visitors for centuries. The destination also boasts unforgettable sunsets over the Red Sea shores and magical diving experiences featuring colorful coral reefs, making it a year-round destination for nature lovers.

pm Visit to the historic district of Jeddah, Al-Balad

An enchanting area with vestiges of a simpler, more traditional way of life, with winding, snugly huddled Souqs, mosques, and over 650 houses built over the centuries by Jeddah's mercantile families. The architecture is characterized by the artistic use of limestone, wood, and coral stone, which can be found in blocks on the shore of the Red Sea. The stone is breathable and forms thick walls that keep out the heat. The facades of these houses are highlighted by trademark 'rawasheen', which are hanging latticed teakwood windows of great artistry and craftsmanship.

Here we can enjoy our first taste of some aromatic spices of traditional Saudi dishes like Kabsa and Mandi to the tantalizing sweetness of Middle Eastern desserts like Baklava and Kunafa, each bite telling a story of heritage and hospitality.

Whether indulging in a hearty meal at a local eatery or savoring a cup of fragrant Arabic coffee, or the A Jeddah favorite; Al Baik's take-away fried chicken.

Wednesday, October 22 Jeddah - Medina - 1 night

Am City tour of Jeddah - Late afternoon departure to Medina

In the morning we will visit the Floating Mosque, the most visited attractions in the city due to its unique design, which gives the illusion that it is floating on the water, especially during high tide. With bases planted under the surface of the sea, it is distinct by its bright white color and its turquoise dome which paints a wonderful scene especially when the sun shines on it to reflect the beauty of architecture

Continue to The King Fahd Fountain, the tallest fountain in the world shooting water up over 1000 feet

Medina - AIUla.

2 nights

Visit of the city of Medina

Begin our adventure with a visit to the iconic Oubud Mountain, a historic landmark that stands as a testament to Medina's rich past. This significant site is not just a striking natural feature but also a place of great historical importance. Here, you'll learn about the pivotal Battle of Uhud, where early Muslims faced a crucial test of faith and bravery. As you explore the rugged terrain, imagine the historic events that unfolded on these very slopes and appreciate the breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. It's a journey through time amidst serene, majestic scenery.

Medina's Mosques (Exterior Visits): Next, you'll take in the grandeur of Medina's renowned mosques. Marvel at the architectural beauty of these sacred spaces, which include the Prophet's Mosque and other notable sites. While access inside the mosques is restricted to Muslims, the exteriors offer a captivating glimpse of Islamic architectural excellence. Admire the intricate designs, the towering minarets, and the serene courtyards, all of which reflect the spiritual and cultural significance of these revered places.

In the afternoon we will drive to AIUla - 3hrs

We will drive the route of the famous Hejaz Railway, long abandoned by the frequent sabotages under rebel Arabs led by T.E. Lawrence during WWI, made famous in the movie Lawrence of Arabia

Saharay Hotel

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Friday, October 24 AIUla

Dadan, Jabal Ikmah, Hegra

AIUla's underground water resources and its strategic location along the frankincense road meant this valley played a major role in the history of the Arabian Peninsula.

Today we explore AI Ulla, the birthplace of two ancient Arabian kingdoms. During the 1st millennium BC, AI-Ulla saw the rise of the ancient city of Dadan that became the capital of two successive kingdoms, Dadan and Lihyan, that ruled over the northwest of the Arabian Peninsula.

Start our journey through time at Dadan, the ancient Kingdom of the Lihyanite and Dadanite civilizations, situated in a stunning desert canyon.

Marvel at Jabal Ikmah, an open library of inscriptions, rock art and petroglyphs set in a stunning desert canyon.

Continue to the UNESCO-listed splendor of Hegra, the Nabataean kingdom's crown jewel with over 100 tombs carved from solid rock with intricate embellishments

In the first century AD the Nabataeans, grown rich on trading frankincense and myrrh to Rome and Alexandria, built Hegra as a southern rival to their capital Petra. We drive around outcrops of golden sandstone sculpted by the wind into Gaudi-esque swirls and spires.

Hegra was once part of the Nabatean Kingdom, which also included the famous city of Petra in present-day Jordan. The Nabateans were skilled traders who controlled important trade routes connecting southern Arabia, the Levant, and Egypt. Hegra features a stunning collection of well-preserved Nabatean ruins, including elaborately carved tombs, rock-cut facades, and inscriptions. These structures date back to the 1st century CE and provide insight into the architectural and cultural achievements of the Nabatean civilization.

Al Ula is wrapped in the seductive silence of the desert and the romance of travel. Charles Doughty's 1888 *account of his search for Hegra and his dastardly dealings with the local bedouin, Travels in Arabia Deserta, was "a bible of its kind" for T E Lawrence, who used it to plan his attacks on the Turkish-built Hijaz Railway in the First World War. At the entrance to the archaeological site one of the original German locomotives still stands outside the restored buildings of Mada'in Saleh station.*

Saturday, October 25      AIUla - Riyadh Elephant Rock - AIUla Old Market

Let the awe-inspiring Elephant Rock enchant you. This iconic geological marvel, sculpted by nature's own hand, stands proudly as a testament to AIUla's undeniable allure. Embrace the gentle warmth of the setting sun as it casts its golden glow upon this majestic sentinel, bidding you farewell until the dawn of another day in this magical land.

Step into the magical world of AIUla's past with a guided tour by a Rawi through the enchanting AIUla Old market. This is the place where pilgrims, travelers, and permanent settlers have gathered for centuries and now you have the chance to experience it for yourself. As you embark on the AIUla Old Town Tour, you will be transported back in time and get a glimpse of AIUla's not-so-distant past.

The town has been inhabited since before the 12th century till the early 1980s, it offers a treasured trove of unique oral histories and living memory that researchers can uncover here.

With 900 houses, 500 shops, and 5 town squares, AIUla Old Town is a maze of remnants of original stone and mudbrick buildings that will take your breath away.

The tour culminates with spectacular views of the AIUla Castle, dating back to the 10th century.

Sunday, October 26      Riyadh City Tour

Embark on a captivating journey to one of the world's most mesmerizing cities, where the pulse of modern life beats in harmony with the echoes of a storied past. Riyadh, the jewel of Saudi Arabia, with its national museum, a World Heritage Site that unveils the enchanting tale of the kingdom's birth, and a myriad of lavish hotels and gastronomic delights that cater to the most discerning tastes.

In the ever-evolving tapestry of Riyadh, uncover the very roots of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, nestled within the hallowed halls of ancient palaces that stand as timeless witnesses to the dawn of a proud nation. This alluring oasis lures globe-trotting adventurers, eager to immerse themselves in a kaleidoscope of shopping, entertainment, and business experiences, where the treasures of the past and the promise of the future collide in an unforgettable

Historical Riyadh, is a remarkable site with a rich history in the middle of an Arab desert on the banks of Wadi Hanifa, amidst a green oasis filled with orchards, farms, and fruitful palms. This is where Imam Muhammad bin Saud established the foundations of the first Saudi state, resulting in an unprecedented period of prosperity for the region that lasted for centuries.

At-Turaif District is an essential part of Diriyah, and it is one of the five UNESCO World Heritage sites in Saudi Arabia. This district includes Salwa Palace, which was the center of governance of the first Saudi state. Other districts such as Al-Bujairi, Al-Suraiha, and Ghasiba are also worth exploring.

Continue to visit The National Museum, a “Journey Through Time and Space”, which opened its doors in 1998. The museum showcases 3,700 artifacts, including statues, scripts, and unique sculptures that chronicle earth’s history to the moon and beyond.

Continue to visit the Masmak Museum (Exterior), Enjoy and step back in time and explore Saudi Arabia’s roots. A short documentary also re-enacts the capture of the fortress by King Abdul Aziz, whose spearhead you can still see embedded in its wooden gate.

Will end our day at the Dira Souq, dating back to 15th century is famous for its variety of old copper and brass objects including silver daggers, silver Bedouins Jewelry, and dresses. The traditional architecture of the Souq, narrow alleys and high arches speak volumes about the country’s past

Monday, October 27 Riyadh Ushaquier - Qassim

Today we will start the journey through the Nafud desert to visit the Mud Village of Ushaquier. These houses display the painting of the antique Najdi architectural design with their windows, triangular roofs, and wooden doors.

Because of freshwater springs and the densely clustered olive and palm trees in this region, the village has historically been a central stopping point for pilgrims traveling from Kuwait.

You can walk along the shady and charming paths that wind between the 400 mud houses and 25 mosques that the village houses. Some of the houses still bear the name of the families that originally lived here.

Then on to Qassim. A land that poets wrote about and that supplies over 74 countries with the finest dates. The rest of the day we have time to explore Qassim, visit the lively Souq and the date market.
